"Lest We Forget"

One Year Ago

Look closely and you'll see a victim of the flood in the window above. Even in disaster, this picture proves there can be found the element of humor. The man in the above window, looking all too lifelike, was destroyed by the ravaging waters.

Recruiting at sea? From the sign above, it would seem the U.S. Navy's Recruiting Station was appropriately located. Water flooded the basement of the post office and eventually swallowed up the Navy sign.

North Main was one of the areas that caught the brunt of the 1957 flood. Here looking north, the water sweeps over homes and businesses, carrying in its path, misery, desolation, and destruction.

At the intersection of the bypass and East Main, water flowed rapidly and disastrously. These and other pictures in this series were taken when the water had not yet receded.

Postponed

The meeting of the Hazard Better Businessmen's Association originally scheduled for this afternoon at 2 p.m., has been postponed until next Thursday at the same time, George Roach, president, announced this week.

Art Grunewald Resigns Position With Local Firm

Arthur L. Grunewald, general manager of W.K.I.C., has resigned his position to become manager and part owner of radio station W.M.N.F., in Richmond, W. Va.

His resignation is effective February 1.

Grunewald, 27, came to Hazard a year ago from station W.S.O.I., joining W.K.I.C. at the height of the flood.

Fred B. Bullard, president of the Mountain Broadcasting Service, in announcing Grunewald's resignation expressed his regret in the losing the energetic young manager, but wished him much success in his new position.

Bullard expressed the sentiments of the entire staff of the station when he said:

"We have enjoyed our association with Art for the past year and offer him our thanks for a job well done."

Bullard said Ernest Sporkman, W.K.I.C. vice-president and station manager, will become general manager, filling the vacancy left by Grunewald.

Sporkman came to W.K.I.C. from W.T.C.R. in Ashland last summer. He has been active in radio since 1948, holding positions with stations in Whitesburg, Pikeville and was formerly associated with W.K.I.C.

Bullard said the company had no plans for filling Sporkman's present position at this time.

Students of Mrs. Miriam Dobyns were featured in recitations and piano solos before members of the Hazard Rotary Club during the weekly luncheon meeting, Wednesday.

Despite a 35-point show by this area's top scorer, Jimmy Moore, Hindman couldn't outperform Goebel Ritters' Bulldogs. Moore snapped the nets for 13 field goals and nine free throws to lead all scorers for the evening and to once again center attention on himself as a top contender for All-State laurels.

But for the performance of the versatile Moore, the Yellow-jackets would have been out of the game.

Capturing scoring honors for Hazard was Bulldog Bob Baker with 25 points, one of his top scoring exhibitions of the year. Baker hit for six field goals and 13 free throws.

Hazard whipped the Yellow-jackets at the free throw line. The two teams traded field goals, getting 24 each. The Bulldogs, however, connected on 30 free throws while Hindman was getting but 21.

As in previous games, Hindman was plagued by fouls. The

Two Students Make Honor Roll

Two Perry County students attending Midway Junior College, are on the honor roll for the first six weeks of the 1958 Winter quarter, Dr. Fravis D. Rawlings, academic dean, announced today.

They are Annette Short and Sharon Barnett, both of Hazard.

Bulldogs Edge Ashland, 67-61

An under-rated Ashland quintet narrowly missed walking off with an upset last week before losing to Hazard High School's Bulldogs, 67-61.

The well-balanced Ashland five outshot Hazard from the field getting 24 field goals to 23 for the Bulldogs. Bulldogs accuracy, however, at the foul line provided the winning margin. Hazard connected on 21 free throws while limiting the Boyd County quintet to 13 charity tosses.

High for Hazard was Forward Ken Cobb, connecting for 21 points on 8 field goals and 5 free throws. Scoring honors for Ashland were taken by Ross with 16 points.

Sermon of the Week

I DON'T FEEL LIKE IT

E. Tipton Carroll

Romans 15:1-3

Did you ever say in response to some appeal, "I don't feel like it?" Of course you have. Many of the things we do not do have no other reason behind them than just that—"I don't feel like it." For by and large the most powerful drive in a man's life is his feelings. The mind says "this is the wise thing to do," the moral sense may say, "this is the right thing to do," the will may say, "this is the thing to do," then the emotions walk right in and we actually do what we feel like doing.

We are pretty much slaves to our emotions. But Paul spoke of Christ as a person who was not a slave to them. He said of him, "Even Christ pleased not himself."

I. The Reason Our Feelings Are So Powerful Is That They Belong To Our Primitive Endowment. Primitive man felt long before he reasoned or willed. His feelings were basically bodily urges and needs. His actions were expressions of these urges, strong and powerful. Man began to be civilized as he harnessed and redirected his prodigious power to socially useful and creative ends. But like a wild horse, our primitive instincts often break the harness and run away with us.

This is what is happening today. So-called civilization is only a thin covering. Scratch the surface and underneath is revealed man with his primitive biological passions. Our emotions are powerful and often break through our intellectual, moral and will powers and try to go against them. So we say, "I don't feel like it," and give expression to something primitive and powerful.

II. Is Such A Statement An Adequate Guide For Our Behavior? Our instinctive feelings are not always misleading or unworthy. We should be thankful there are some things we do not feel like doing, such as committing murder or robbery. Yet on the other hand there are some things we do feel like doing we should do. Like reading a good book, attending worship, writing a letter, visiting some friend in trouble or sickness.

But there are times when we cannot depend upon how we feel. Our emotions are like the engine of a train, they furnish the driving power for our lives. So the track over which they run must be equipped with certain regulative devices. There must be switches, signals, lights. For to start the engine and let it take us wherever it will is folly.

Even Christ did not do that. If any man could trust his feelings, it was Christ. But he did not trust them. He was tempted like we are. And to be tempted is to be lured by something you feel like not doing, or something you feel like doing but know you ought not to do it. Christ mastered both these temptations. And if he did not trust his feelings, surely none of us can. "The disciple is not greater than his Lord."

III. The "I Don't Feel Like It" Motto Is Not An Adequate Guide For Our Life. For one thing the "I" is too much in the forefront. A man never does so badly by himself as when he thinks too much of himself. This is a psychological fact today. Christ taught it 1900 years ago. Strong personality is in essence self-sacrifice, not self-gratification. The self develops not of itself, or by itself, but by dealing with things that lie outside of and beyond self. Self-centeredness builds a wall around a person which he cannot scale. It acts upon a person just as if he had been placed on a desert island when a baby and permitted to grow into adulthood. Such a person would never be a mature personality, he would be an ingrown and self-centered person. In the character of Jesus we see his ego was not the center of his personality. When he prayed he thought of others; when he sorrowed and died it was for others. This is why Christ's way is above the world's way of "I don't feel like it."

BUCKHORN

Agency To Be Inspected By State Health Department

Bernice Hiser

Superintendent Gilbert Bowling was a visitor at the Hiser's home, Thursday evening.

Miss Ruth Gibson is visiting in Dayton, Ohio, this week.

Mr. John I. McIntosh is home from the hospital in slightly improved health.

The Chavies Grade School basketball team, coached by Mr. Howard, beat the Buckhorn team at the Buckhorn gym, Thursday afternoon, by nine points.

Mr. Jim Wolf took a group of the Agency smaller girls and Susie Hiser and Freddie Allen on a hike to the sawmill, Sunday afternoon. The children enjoyed this a lot.

Mr. Granville Begley's Boy Scouts played the Buckhorn grade school's basketball team, Friday, and beat them soundly.

Now that we have the janitorial services of Mr. Elliott Turner and Sim Eversole, the school is much warmer and pleasanter.

Mr. Leslie Dale Begley was a visitor in Hazard with Fred and Scott Johnson, Saturday.

Library Books

We have now shelved 5,000 books, given us since the big flood last year, to replace those destroyed at the library by the flood.

Mr. Leo Begley, one of our May graduates was a visitor at school, Thursday.

A great many of our children were kept out of school this week by the bad weather and dangerous roads.

Bobby McClure is at home from Berea this weekend during the mid-term vacation, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McClure.

John Grillo, one of 9th graders who has been living at the Agency, has been admitted to Berea Foundation School for the second semester.

Mrs. Linda Combs, who was operated on at the Good Samaritan in Lexington, is slowly recuperating.

The Buckhorn Wildcats played at Hazard, Saturday night. The school had pictures taken this week.

The government has started selling the homes and other moveable property it bought in the area that is to be flooded by the dam. Sad!

Teachers Get Vacation

Because of the snowy weather, the professors from Richmond, teaching the courses at Napier High School, were unable to be there last Friday night, thus giving the teachers in our area taking the course a welcome holiday. Among those taking the course from here are Mae Colwell, Charles Deaton and Superintendent and Mrs. Gilbert Bowling.

One of our seniors, Jack Williams, returned to Leslie County High for his last semester of high school work.

June Bowling, of Saul, one of our seniors, hurt her right hand while swimming last summer and has since lost the use of three fingers. She is having them treated and hopes they will recover.

The Rev. Robert B. McClure had a wreck this weekend in Henry County.

We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Blaine Campbell, one of our local teachers in the death of her husband. Mr. Campbell was 45 years of age. He is survived by his wife, the daughter of Joe Bowling of Bowlingtown. The funeral was Monday.

The Agency is to be inspected tomorrow by the State Health and Welfare Department to determine whether it meets the required specifications for a licensed child care agency.

Poem of Week

What does the wife in Japan say to her man

At the close of the day

In her wifely way?

"Stop and think

Ere you reach the bowl's brink;

First the man takes a drink;

Then the drink takes the drink;

Then the drink takes the man."

Of course, this is true only in Japan.

Mrs. Banks Hosts Liberty H'makers

Mrs. Zannie Banks entertained the Liberty Homemakers at her home Tuesday with 14 members present. The lesson on washing supplies and equipment was given by the club leader, Mrs. R. W. Richmond, who stressed the appreciation of clothing well laundered and pointed out the importance of convenience and good equipment for washing.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. Lucien Cornett, Mrs. Jess Richardson, Mrs. Elbert Olinger, Mrs. Phillip Wright, Mrs. Richmond, Mrs. Karl Walker, Mrs. Jeff Tate, Mrs. James Combs, Mrs. Roy Higgins, Mrs. James Zimmerman, Mrs. John Hampton, Mrs. Arthur Bryant and Mrs. Banks.

Vicco H'makers Install Officers

Mrs. La Rue Neice was hostess to the Vicco Homemakers Club at a meeting held recently at her home in Hazard.

Mrs. McKinley Stacy, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Pauline Hammonds had charge of the devotional.

Mrs. Edith Coomer had charge of the lesson on "Laundry Supplies and Equipment." Many interesting points were brought out.

The following members were installed in their respective offices: Mrs. McKinley Stacy, president; Mrs. Luther Combs, vice-president; Mrs. I. Bowling, secretary; Mrs. LaRue Neice, treasurer; and Mrs. Edna Scalf, publicity chairman.

Other members who enjoyed a delicious, covered dish dinner were: Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Combs, Mrs. Coomer, Mrs. Stacy, Mrs. Elbert Lewis, Mrs. Pauline Hammonds, Mrs. Bowling, Edna M. Scalf and the hostess.

Stork Shower
Following the dinner, a surprise stork shower was given for Mrs. Elbert Lewis. Mrs. Lewis received many lovely gifts. Mrs. Combs introduced a new game, "Baby-O" (Bingo).

Roll Attends Gas Conference

Elmer Roll, director-at-large for the Kentucky LP Gas Association, attended a conference Tuesday, between U.S. Senator John Sherman Cooper and members of the LP Gas industry of Kentucky.

The conference came during the mid-winter board meeting at the Phoenix hotel.

Roll, of Ro-Lane Gas Co. here, is chairman of the association's finance committee.

TRUTH-AD FOR THE UNCHURCHED

By WINN T. BARR

In two previous TRUTH-ADS you have seen passages in the Gospels and Acts where baptism is left out of discussions on salvation. Now we present a few passages in the Epistles that do the same: "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek" (Rom. 1:16). "Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe; for there is no difference." "Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus." "To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus." "Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law." "Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith" (Rom. 3:22, 24, 26, 28, 30). "For what saith the Scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness." "But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness." "Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works." "Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him; but for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead" (Rom. 4:3, 5, 6, 23, 24). "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ" (Rom. 5:1). "For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth." "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." "For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved" (Rom. 10: 4, 9, 13). "For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe" (1 Cor. 1:21). "Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified" (Gal. 2:16). "Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith" (Gal. 3:24). "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God" (Gal. 2:8). "And be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith" (Phil. 3:9). "Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting" (1 Tim. 1:16).

This makes approximately 35 passages that we have presented along this line.
